In Loving Memory of

philip thomas walters

(January 8, 1972 - November 3, 2006)

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest philip thomas walters who was born in United Kingdom NSMH on January 8, 1972 and passed away on November 3, 2006 at the age of 34. You will live forever in our memories and hearts. phil was a caring, loving man, who would sit and listern to everyones problems but never spoke about his own, he was a big kid himself when it came to playing football or kerby with the kids, he would hide if the ball went in a neighbours garden he would ask the kids to go fetch the ball he would make us laugh all the time .danielle misses her daddy so very much they use to pack a picnic and go feed the horses and run up and down the big hill ,he loved his walks phil would walk for miles and miles along the beach when we went on holidays .phil always made me laugh there was never a dull moment with phil . when friday nights came phil and my brother loved playing the guitars he had 2 which he named one shelia and the other was danielle 2. for hours he would just sit and play danielle 2 learning different songs we will always love and miss phil very much he will always be in our hearts forever.

The image features two roses in a muted, earthy color palette, set against a textured, parchment-like background. The roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant, with one slightly larger and more open than the other. The overall aesthetic is soft and romantic.

Missing You

i miss you so much babe

two hearts beat as one

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are rendered in a light, almost ethereal tone against a textured, olive-green background. The roses appear to be made of a delicate material, possibly paper or fabric, and are slightly out of focus, creating a soft, nostalgic atmosphere.

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper center, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing more petals. Both roses are rendered in a light, almost white color, making them stand out against the darker background.

Shared Memoirs

all the gray you turned into colors...

karen

phil was a good man with a heart of gold,he would sit and listern to anyone who had problems ,but wouldnt speak about his own,he is the love of my life always will be,he was a big kid himself around the kids.danielle is nearly 3 and doesnt really understand where her daddy has gone ,but she does know that her daddy is the brightest star in the sky. phil was my life im so lost without him,he was so caring,loving,he showed me the the true meaning of love. danielle misses her walks with her daddy going to see the horses and playing ball,then having there little picnic on top of the hill.

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, mottled background of warm, earthy tones, including shades of beige, tan, and light brown. The roses are rendered in a soft, slightly faded style, blending into the background.
